FOR REPRESENTATIVE

William H. Shanks announces his candidacy for Representative from Lincoln county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Talk about your rule or ruin politics.

If the Courier-Journal isn't playing that game to the limit, we're blind.

Because Marse Henry could not dictate the democratic platform, his paper now reprints all the knocks on it that any 2x4 sheet in the state may hand out.

Henri and the C-J. simply can't stand the gaff when they lose. Their attitude may help more than it will hurt, however.

Mr. Watterson said in the democratic convention that he would "follow McCreary to hell," if necessary.

From the venom of his recent editorial remarks about the nominee for governor, since the latter succeeded in his desire that the convention incorporate the county unit plank in the platform, it looks from here that Marse Henry has decided to go on to the warm place by his lonesome.

With O'Rear preaching temperance on the stump and Bradley and Langley dealing with the liquor fellows on the quiet, it looks like they have the game all set to play both ends against the middle again just like they did when they put Wilson over the plate.

Those few who question the sincerity of Mr. McCreary on the temperance issue, seem to overlook the fact that it was at his insistence that the county unit plank was put in the democratic platform. And McCreary was the first governor in Kentucky to approve a local option law.

Judge O'Rear says there are 70,000 purchasable voters in Kentucky. How does he know? Is his campaign manager negotiating to buy the floaters over the state by the wholesale?

We thought that bunch of Baptists would bring some water with them. And it began raining here Thursday.

MEN!

Free for Stomach and Bowels

We are in receipt of letters from Mrs. Eva Gaskins, 304 Madison St., Topeka, Kans., and Mr. P. H. Gavelas, Wagoner, Okla., as well as many others, telling about the wonderful results they have secured in the cure of their stomach and liver troubles by the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

This remedy, as all readers doubtless know, has been before the public for a generation and is now being more extensively used than any other remedy for stomach, liver and bowel complaints. According to reliable testimony, it seems to be a very quick and lasting cure for constipation, indigestion and dyspepsia, liver trouble, biliousness, headaches, sour stomach, gas on the stomach, drowsiness after eating and similar disorders. It is a liquid with tonic effect, and so mild and gentle in action that a child as well as a grown person can take it, in fact, it has no equal for children, women and old people.

It arouses the flow of gastric juice, and by a peculiar action trains the stomach and bowel muscles to again do their work naturally, and in time medicines of all kinds can be dispensed with. A free sample bottle can be had for trial by sending your address to the doctor, for in this way Mrs. Gaskins, Mr. Gavelas and many others first learned of the cure. Later, when satisfied it is the remedy you need, do as others are doing and buy it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample address him Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 402 Caldwell building Monticello, Ill.
